Good results so far, although room for improvement in some subjects, good guidance given by teacher in History, thank you.

Extremely happy with my child's education at Mintlaw Academy. Professional and friendly staff.

Not really got any comments, teachers have shown tonight just how much they know my child with their strengths/weaknesses and what qualification would suit them in their next phase of study.

With regards to fairness, behaviour and respect, I assume these to be true but its hard to be sure as its not something my child talks about (to me at least).
